A MEMBER OF BOARD OF CONTROL

Of Kentucky State Fair, Is Mr.
W. R. Moorman, Jr., of Glendane, This County.

Mr. W. R. Moorman, Jr., of Glendane, this county, and a member of the Board of Control of the Kentucky State Fair, has been made superintendent of the beef cattle display at the fair this week.

The fair management was indeed fortunate in securing the services of Mr. Moorman, for no better man than he could have been found for this special purpose. A raiser of fine blooded cattle himself he is in a position to make this part of the exhibits interesting and successful. The cattle exhibit will be one of the main features of the fair, and the honor that has been conferred upon Mr. Moorman is one that he should be proud of.

Mr. Nathaniel Ahl, of Mowesa, Ill., is on a visit to his son, Aleck Ahl, of Tobinsport. Mr. Ahl was formerly a citizen of the Skillman vicinity. He was in Cloverport Monday and his many friends here were glad to see him once more. He has been away from the county for about ten years.

NARROW ESCAPE IN RUNAWAY.

Painful and Exciting Experience of Miss Ola Fallon and Her Two Visitors Sunday.

Two horses attached to a surrey, in which were four occupants, took fright on the river road near the residence of Mr. John Gregory Sunday afternoon and ran away. The occupants were Mr. Charlie Fallon, Miss Ola Fallon and her two visitors, Miss Gertie Strotter, of Louisville, and Miss Cora Gibson, of New Albany. All of them were either thrown from the vehicle or jumped and were more or less injured, though none very seriously. When the frightened animals began to run, Mr. Fallon, who was driving them, saw that they were beyond his control and attempted to climb out to reach the bits when he was thrown to the ground. With the horses dashing madly up the street and no driver in charge, the young ladies became badly frightened and sought to save themselves from the peril they were in by jumping to the ground. Miss Gibson was thrown on her face, both wheels of the surrey passing over her back, bruising her quite badly. Miss Strotter suffered a sprained ankle and other bruises in jumping. Miss Fallon received injuries to her forehead and elbow, though not serious.

The occupants all got the horses continued their flight up the street until they came to the livery stable where they were stopped. The young ladies had sufficiently recovered from their injuries for the two visitors to return to their home the next day.

James and Samuel Rice, of Decatur, Ill., were here last week visiting their uncle, Mr. John Corley, whom they had not seen in 34 years. They formerly lived at Patesville and moved to Decatur in 1872.

HARDIN AND TRIGG COUNTIES GO DRY.

Elections were held in Hardin and Trigg counties on last Saturday to determine whether or not they shall have saloons.

In each of the counties the local option advocates won—in Hardin by a majority of 531 votes and in Trigg by 64. In both counties the question was a hard fought one between the temperance people and the whiskey element and the former are jubilant over their victories.

State Senator Hickman is dead.

The bridge needs some more patches.Hardinsburg is getting real busy. She is trying to land several big enterprises.The State Fair is a howling success; so say the Louisville papers.
Lexington is yet to be heard from.The next best fair to the State Fair is the Owensboro Fair. Get ready for it: October 2 is the date.There are 200 cases of typhoid fever in Mercer county, a majority of them being in Harrodsburg.
Poor water is named as the cause.Vic Robertson has the sympathy of the entire community in the loss of his wife. The News especially feels for him in his great distress.The paramount issue in the next Democratic campaign, if Mr.
Bryan is the nominee, will be Government ownership of railroads.
Like the free coinage of silver, in 1900, it won't dawn, even if it is named in the platform.The Harrodsburg Fair is, it is said, a sure go. The citizens of that town are to be congratulated.
It will be a great uplift to the stock interests, as well as all other interests in the county. Every citizen who takes a pride in his county should lend a helping hand and speak a good word for it.

CHURCH DEDICATION.

Methodist Church at Dundee Dedicated Last Sunday—Rev. Currie Preached Dedication Sermon.On last Sunday the Methodist Episcopal church South at Dundee, Ky., was dedicated. A morning service was held at 11 o'clock and in the afternoon at 3 o'clock another sermon was delivered, followed by the dedicatory service.
Rev. Currie, pastor of the Clover-port Methodist church, delivered the dedicatory address.At the morning service a collection was taken to liquidate the indebtedness against the church and the generous response from the people was sufficient to free the church from the debt incurred.A large crowd was in attendance and dinner was served on the ground. Rev. Frank Baker is pastor of the new church.

Death of Mrs. J. A. Witt.

It is with a feeling of sadness that the News records the death of Mrs. J. A. Witt, of Hardins-burg. Mrs. Witt has been a sufferer for more than a year, and her death was not a surprise to her many friends. About a year ago Mrs. Witt went to Owensboro to live with her daughter there, but the health there was gradually failing. Previous to that time she had been a resident of Harrodsburg, going there to live soon after her marriage with Mr. J. A. Witt in 1875. Mrs.
Witt was a member of the methodist church South, and took an active interest in all church and charitable work.The funeral services were held at Harrodsburg Monday afternoon, Mrs. Witt was 64 years of age.CASTORIA.

dently believed that the factory operated under unfavorable con-

CYRUS U. MILLER DEAD

Well-Known Young Man Dies At Hardinsburg Saturday.Hardinsburg, Ky., Sept. 18.— (Special.)—Cyrus U. Miller, aged 34 years, the only son of Judge Matthias Miller, died at the home of his brother-in-law, Mr. T. J. Hook, last Saturday evening after a short illness. The funeral services were held at the M. E. church, South, Sunday afternoon, and were conducted by the Rev. G. S.
King, the pastor of the church. An audience that crowded the church to its utmost capacity assembled to pay the last tribute of respect to his memory. The interment was in the Miller graveyard. The deceased was one of the most progressive young farmers and business men of the county and his success along these lines was pronounced. He possessed many admirable traits of character and he was universally liked and respected by all who knew him.A few days before his death he professed religion and died in the hope of reaching the home of the blest. He was truly conscious of the approaching end and was resigned.
Besides his father he leaves three sisters, Mrs. T. J. Hook of this place, Mrs. John E. Mowbray of Owensboro and Mrs. Milton Board, of Hopkinsville.

The Breath of Life.

It's a significant fact that the strongest animal of its size, the gorilla, also has the largest lungs. Powerful lungs means powerful creatures. How to keep the breathing organs right should be man's chief study. Like thousands of others, Mrs. Ora A. Stephens, of Port Williams, O., has learned how to do this. She writes: "Three bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery stopped my cough of two years and cured me of what my friends thought consumption. O, it's grand for throat and lung trouble." Guaranteed by Sevens Drug Co. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.In Honor of Miss OelzeMrs. Mary B. Oelze will be at home Wednesday night, September the twenty-sixth, from 9 to 11 o'clock, in honor of her daughter, Miss Ethel Oelze, who is to be married to Harry Stitt Hill that evening at 8:30. The marriage will take place in the Baptist church and the ceremony will be performed by the Rev. Rutledge, of Tenn., formerly of this place and a very close friend of the Oelze family.
Miss Mamie DeHaven will be maid of honor and Miss Grace Plank bride-maid. The best man will be George Younger, of Louisville. Water Oelze, brother of the bride, and Late Benson will act as ushers.The bride and groom will leave after the reception on the west bound train for a wedding trip.MISCELLANEOUS SHOWERS.

STATE FAIRNow In Full Blast In The Metropolis—Grandest In History Of Commonwealth.The Kentucky State Fair is on in Louisville this week, and promises to be the grandest ever given in the history of the State. The delightful weather and gorgeous displays are attracting thousands of people from throughout the State to the city to attend the fair. The stock displays and other exhibits are elaborate and almost beyond conception in point of gorgeousness.The management of the Fair is highly rated over the success of the undertaking so far and look forward with confidence to a week's meeting that surpasses any ever held in the State in point of fine displays and the large attendance at the exhibits. A serious problem is already confronting the management in the way of providing room for the exhibits and telegrams are being sent to exhibitors not to come, as it is impossible to provide space for them.COUNTY FAIR
SEEMS ASSUREDPromoters Organizing Company
With $7,500 Capital.Hardinsburg, Ky., Sept. 18.— (Special.)—The success of the County Fair seems now assured.
It is the purpose of its promoters to capitalize the company at $7,500 and more than one-half of the stock has already been secured.
A draft of the articles of incorporation has been prepared, which will be acknowledged by the subscribers to the stock of the company as soon as the sum of $5,000 is subscribed. It is provided in the charter that no gambling in any form shall be allowed or permitted on the property at any time, and it will be conducted as a purely agricultural fair.

Soft Core

Like the running brook, the red blood that flows through the veins has to come from somewhere.

The springs of red blood are found in the soft core of the bones called the marrow and some say red blood also comes from the spleen. Healthy bone marrow and healthy spleen are full of fat.

Scott's Emulsion makes new blood by feeding the bone marrow and the spleen with the richest of all fats, the pure cod liver oil.

For pale school girls and for invalids and for all whose blood is thin and pale, Scott's Emulsion is a pleasant and rich blood food. It not only feeds the blood-making organs but gives them strength to do their proper work.

DEATH CLAIMS
MOST BELOVED
YOUNG WOMAN

Mrs. C. V. Robertson Passes Away at Her Home in Hardinsburg Monday Night.

HAD BEEN ILL ONLY TWO WEEKS

Death claimed on Monday night one of Breckenridge county's most popular and beloved young women. At 11:30 o'clock Mrs. C. V. Robertson died at the home of her husband, at Hardinsburg, of typhoid fever, after an illness of only two weeks.

Mrs. Robertson was a lady of wide popularity because of her lovable disposition and many fine traits of character, and her death comes as a severe blow to many friends throughout the county. Cultured, refined and possessing those traits that make a friend of every acquaintance, a true Christian woman, her life was one of true cheer to every one she met, and was an example worthy to be followed.

Mrs. Robertson was thirty years of age and had been married only a few years. Besides her husband, a baby, fifteen months old, survives. To these, sympathizing friends throughout the county extend their sincerest condolences.

Everything that was possible to be done to restore her to health failed. Dr. Sippel, of Louisville, was called in attendance and arrived Monday evening, but death was too close at hand for medical aid to reverse her.

Mrs. Robertson died as she had lived. Conscious until the end, she died a sweet, Christian death, and with a realization that a final parting was near she talked with her loved ones and tried to cheer them in her last hours.

The funeral took place from the Methodist church in Hardinsburg yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock, and the burial was in the Hardinsburg cemetery.

Mrs. Robertson had frequently visited in Cloverport, the guest of Mrs. L. T. Reid, and was universally popular with the people here. Her maiden name was Eva L. Hensley, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hensley, of Hardinsburg.

New Section Foreman.

Mr. Ed. Warford, formerly section foreman on the L. O. railroad, has succeeded Mr. J. C. Stephens as foreman on this division of the Henderson route. Mr. Stephens has gone to Richmond, Ky., to take a position with the Louisville and Atlantic railroad as supervisor.

This is in line of promotion for Mr. Stephens, but one that is justly deserved, and his many friends in Cloverport are glad that his valuable services are so justly recognized.

"23" FOR CLOVERPORT BOYS.

Hawesville Ball Team Does Them Up in Grand Style—23 to 3 the Score.

A base ball game was played on the ball diamond at Hawesville Sunday between the kid nines of Cloverport and Hawesville. The game was not very interesting, as the Cloverport boys proved no match for the boys of their sister town, the score standing 23 to 3.

Several of the younger sports went along to do the rooting, but came back with their vocal organs in good condition and with an enthusiasm that was on the wane.

The Song of the Hair

There are four verses. Verse 1. Ayer's Hair Vigor stops falling hair. Verse 2. Ayer's Hair Vigor makes the hair grow. Verse 3. Ayer's Hair Vigor cures dandruff. Verse 4. Ayer's Hair Vigor makes the scalp healthy, and keeps it so. It is a regular hair-food; and this is the real secret of its wonderful success.

CUTICURA REMEDIES WORK WONDERS.

"An I was a sufferer with eczema I write to tell you what a great friend I found in Cuticura Remedies. Six months I had tried three doctors, but did not get any better. It was on my body and on my face. I could hardly put a pin on me without touching eczema. My face was covered, my eyebrows came out, and I got in my eyes. I told my mother about it. He asked me what I was taking for it, and I told him Cuticura. He said that was a very good thing, but that he thought that my face would be marked for life. But Cuticura did the work and my face is now just as clear as it ever was."

"My brother-in-law told me about the wonderful Cuticura remedies. I took his advice and got the Ointment, Soap, and Resolvent. I washed with the Cuticura Soap and then applied the Ointment, and took Cuticura Resolvent as directed. In a short time my face began to get better, and when I had taken one bottle of Resolvent I could brush the scales off my face like a powder. When I had taken four bottles my face was as clear as ever."

"I feel all my friends about my remarkable cure. I feel so thankful I want everybody far and wide to know what Cuticura does. It is a sure cure for eczema. (signed) Mrs. Emma White, 641, Courier, Place, Chaudron, N. J., April 25, 1905."

Liberty College Opening.

GLAWSBORO, KY.
 Tuesday, September 11, 1906, was the greatest day in the history of Liberty College.

This was our opening day, and our hearts were made glad by the enrollment of 146 pupils; 73 of these being boarders in the college home, some from various parts of Kentucky and some from other States, viz: Tennessee, Texas, Arkansas, Montana, etc. We have more than twice as many in the college home as at the opening last year, which was our largest year.

We are expecting about 35 day pupils next week, as many are waiting until the county fair is over; and we hope by October 1, to have 90 in the college home. We have increased our faculty and now have 16 instructors. At opening exercises we had many visitors and some splendid addresses, among them the following: "Building a College," by Dr. J. S. Dill, of Bowling Green, Ky., and the "Outlook of Liberty College," by Rev. J. H. Burnett, of Springfield, Tenn. Dr. J. W. Loving also gave us a timely talk. Enthusiasm was at its height, but the happiest person of all was President Geo. J. Burnett.

On the same day the trustees awarded the contract for our new building, and work is being pushed. Teachers and pupils are entering heartily upon their work. J. HENRY BURNETT, Glasgow, Ky. Bus. Mgr.

During William Jennings Bryan's recent visit to Louisville, when the gates of that city were thrown wide open to him the Louisville Herald's editorial columns contained a welcome to Bryan which was beautifully worded and showed a broadmindedness and liberality that could be followed with grand results by newspapers of both parties.

The Herald's welcome follows: "Kentucky's metropolis has handed her keys to William Jennings Bryan. This Republican city is proud to have so distinguished an American and so great a Democrat for guest. We believe in the exemplary personality of Col. Bryan."

A loyal husband and devoted father, a true neighbor and an upright citizen, he is by everyone in his own community held in highest regard.

It is even happy for a community to be fortified by the presence and the efforts of such men. They abound fortunately on both sides of politics. Differing from our British brethren in that important respect, we have carried too much heat and often too much acrimony into our political warfare.

The issues dividing us are, indeed, very important, but not more so than those separating men and parties in other countries. We are learning moderation and increasing in toleration.

Mr. Bryan's cordial welcome to this Republican city by men of all parties is proof that the bitterness of the past are dying out. Nothing wrong in Republicans bestowing admiration on a great Democrat when they see him. Nothing reprehensible in Democrats doing honor to a great Republican when they recognize him.

The Herald extends good wishes to Mr. Bryan, the citizen. It trusts that, abandoning all evil suggestions and rising above all ill-advised courses, he may one day see fit to adopt the policies laid down by Abraham Lincoln, the purposes defined by William McKinley and the principles recently advocated by Theodore Roosevelt.

Mr. Bryan, you are welcome to Louisville and to Old Kentucky.

CHAS. L. SAUER, GRAND SCRIBE

PE-RU-NA STRENGTHENS THE ENTIRE SYSTEM

Mr. Chas. L. Sauer, Grand Scribe, Grand Encampment I. O. O. F. of Texas, and Assistant City Auditor, writes from the City Hall, San Antonio, Texas:

"Nearly two years ago I accepted a position as secretary and treasurer with one of the leading dry goods establishments of Galveston, Tex."

"The sudden change from a high and dry altitude to sea level proved too much for me and I became afflicted with catarrh and cold in the head, and general debility to such an extent as to almost incapacitate me for attending to my duties."

"I was induced to try Peruna, and after taking several bottles in small doses I am pleased to say that I was entirely restored to my normal condition and have ever since recommended the use of Peruna to my friends."
